

The Write Stuff

Do you ever wish there were pennies from heaven to make your library dreams a reality? If so, it's time to recalculate, and wake up to the power of grants! Unlock the secrets of effective grant writing with this half-day program presented by Kathleen Mulroy, Director of the Radnor Memorial Library, and former TCLC activist. Draw on her years of experience and demonstrated successes as grant writer to help define and refine your own skills. Learn how to present the most compelling case in the most appealing manner. Maybe you can make some grant makers' dreams come true, and reap not just pennies, but big bucks for your project too. It's a win-win proposition, so register today.
